

I explore moments of unexpected or hidden emotion in everyday objects and scenes and express these moments through gestural line drawings, painting, printmaking, and site-specific installation. Thread, rope, sewn and drawn lines are integral elements of paintings and monotypes, as I explore ties that bind and break.